

If we follow we get that y will point to 3 then r will be 6. Then in function f we get x to be equal to 6 also then we reset y to 4 to final add u, x and y pointer. We can conclude that the final value will be 19.